WO-HE-LO

Wanted: One Sports
For several years sports equipment in this vicinity have been hard to come by, let alone say the least. We have, with the help of the TOM-TOM, that the TOM-TOM has several sports scribbles, male, 15 or over, people, and see Mi minimum amount. Let a maximum amount of money in the TOM-TOM.

Recently around the school there seem to be a great number of students who cut line, especially the cafeteria line. Students seem to take two points of view on this subject: (1) Some think it is a lot of fun

DEDICATION

For his patience and understanding as a teacher,
For his knowledge and wisdom too,
For the counsel and guidance that he was never too busy to give,
For his loyalty to East Central Junior College,
For his devotion to the cause of Business Education,
We lovingly and respectfully dedicate this 1957-'58
WO-HE-LO to
Mr. J. Wallace Bedwell, Head of the Department of Business Education since 1945.

Published Semi-Monthly by East Central Junior College Represented for National Advertising By NATIONAL ADVERTISING SERVICE, Inc.
College Publishers Representative New York, N. Y.
420 Madison Ave.

MEMBER OF MISSISSIPPI JUNIOR COLLEGE PRESS ASS'N.

The executive staff of The Tom-Tom examines the last issue of the paper and looks for ways of improving the forthcoming publication.

After being certain that The Tom-Tom will have complete news coverage, articles are assigned to the staff, with thought given to find which reporter can best cover that assignment.

Editor, Hallie Jean Frazier reveals news scoops and discloses news sources to reporters eagerly waiting to take trail to the news beats.

Associate Editors, Maurine Hopkins and Anne Moore think of new and unusual headlines that will fit each article.

Bonnie Huddleston and Milton Matthews, news editors, write captions for pictures that will go in the Tom-Tom. This is only one of the many tasks done on press night.

Managing Editor, Elizabeth Walter, carefully checks the articles and pictures to insure completion of assignments.

Sponsors, Miss Una Harris and Mrs. Jessie Mae Everett, discuss financial problems and other policies relating to the college paper.

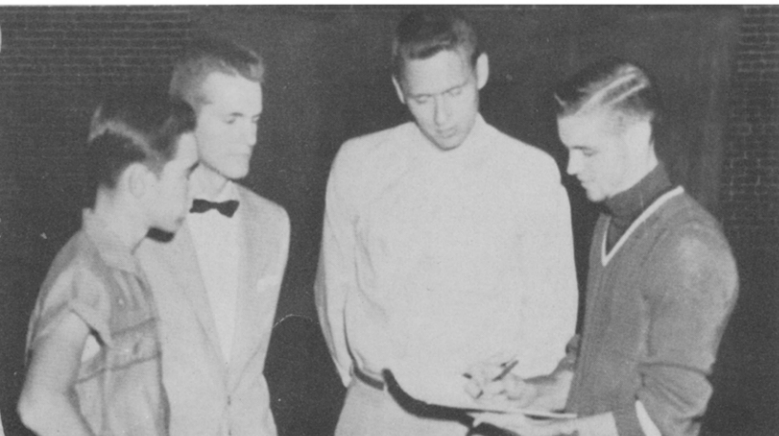

Linda Ward, Dot Thomas, Ouida Power, and Peggy Ming serve in the essential capacity of news reporters, diligently striving to supply the readers with the campus news.

Ever alert feature writers, Gail Dubard, Fred Allen Barfoot, and Danna McMillin, discuss feature possibilities while they relax in the student center.

Columnists, Sue Gunter, Celia Carter, and Edwina Dewberry, are continually searching for new and unusual ideas for their columns.

Mack Shelton, Buck Munn, and Jan Harrell, Sports Writers, get the latest statistics from Coach Brackeen about the "Winning Warriors."

Press night, and all of the articles must be typed, many times retyped; the job is quickly and neatly completed by these six coeds, Carolyn Matthews, Opal Freeman, Peggy Mitchell, Jeanette Waggnor, Martha Grantham and Jerry Johnson.

Members of the advertising staff make plans for a sales campaign and record ads already sold as one phase of financing the college publication. The staff is composed of Billy Gross, Shelby Harris, advertising manager; Raymond Sinclair, Paul Moore, Business Manager; George Smith, Dalton Johnson and Benny Noel.

In order to get the papers distributed quickly on the campus and other copies in the mail, an assembly line is formed by the circulation staff: Dana Turner, Mary Frances Hamilton, Virginia Majors, and Patti Turner.

Tom-Tom photographers, W.C. Eichleburger and Bob Harmon, spend many hours in the dark room developing pictures for the next issue of the paper.
